Presenter: Howard Davis,
Town of Lady Lake IT
Cybersecurity Expert

FREE CYBERSECURITY CLASS AT LIBRARY

The Town of Lady Lake invites residents to a free cybersecurity awareness presentation on Jan. 29 at 2 p.m. at the Lady Lake Library, Room 219, led by Lady Lake Security Analyst Howard Davis, the Town's IT cybersecurity expert.

Lady Lake Police recently investigated several fraud cases where local seniors were tricked into sending money to imposters after being contacted either online or by phone. The session will help residents avoid becoming victims by equipping them with practical tools to recognize and avoid common online threats. Davis will break down the most widespread forms of social engineering and explain how cybercriminals use deceptive tactics to gain access to personal or financial information. Attendees will also learn best practices for creating strong, secure passwords and protecting themselves across digital platforms. The presentation is for all levels of computer users and emphasizes real-world examples to help residents stay safe online., for ages 18 and up. Register at the Library, or online at <https://bit.ly/LLcyberclass>

HEROES & HELPERS

More than 90 local children received a holiday surprise Saturday, Dec. 13, when the Lady Lake Police Department and Fruitland Park Police Department partnered to host their annual Heroes and Helpers shopping event at the Lady Lake Target store.

Children from Lady Lake were selected with assistance from The Villages Elementary of Lady Lake and Little Blessings Daycare. Each child was paired with a police officer for a holiday shopping experience aimed at supporting families and strengthening community connections. The Kiwanis Club of Lady Lake raised most of the funds to support the event and provided volunteers to assist during the shopping trip. Target sponsored 10 children and hosted the event in its Lady Lake store, while a donation from the Nam Knights Green Swamp Chapter allowed additional children to participate. Fruitland Park Police conducted separate fundraising and participant selection efforts, expanding the reach of the event through a joint partnership.

“This event shows what can be accomplished when law enforcement, businesses and community organizations come together with a shared goal,” said Lady Lake Police Chief Steve Hunt. “Working alongside Fruitland Park Police and our local partners allowed us to make a real difference for these children during the holiday season.”
